

DELICIOUS FILET

8 (6oz) Filets $129.99 FREE Shipping BUY NOW offer code TASTY

Select your neighborhood Site Sections

Google Site Search SEARCH

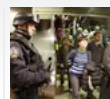

Manhattan Looks to Dry Out After A Rainy March... Transportation

With Killer on the Loose After Fatal Stabbings... Crime

More Manhattan News

Hundreds of NYPD, Transit Police to Swarm... Politics | Manhattan

See more: Arts & Entertainment, East Harlem

Phantom Sightings Exhibit Brings Chicano Art Back to El Museo Del Barrio

March 26, 2010 6:11pm

comment share print

STORY SLIDESHOW COMMENTS

Carlee Fernandez's "Self Portrait: Portrait of My Father, Manuel Fernandez", from El Museo Del Barrio's "Phantom Sightings: Art After the Chicano Movement" exhibit. (El Mudeo del Barrio)

By Gabriela Resto-Montero

DNAinfo Reporter/Producer

EAST HARLEM — A new art exhibit hopes to shed some light on the bicoastal battles waged by Puerto Rican and Chicano activists during the 1960s and '70s.

El Museo del Barrio's new exhibition, "Phantom Sightings: Art After the Chicano Movement," brings those two histories to East Harlem as part of the show running through May 9.

"Bringing Phantom Sightings to El Museo del Barrio highlights the coast-to-coast legacy of revolutionary movements in Latino art during the 1960s and 70s," said Deborah Cullen, director of curatorial programs for the museum, in a statement.

The exhibition, inspired by artist Harry Gamboa, Jr., whose art is also featured in the show, looks at the unrecognized contributions of the Chicano community to mainstream American society.

In a multimedia showcase of more than 100 artists, the show comments on the intersections of culture — from Margarita Cabrera's yellow vinyl version of a Volkswagen Beetle to Juan Capistran's American flag collage of found and altered images.

El Museo del Barrio is the only East Coast venue to host the traveling show, which was organized by the Los Angeles County Museum of Art and the Chicano Studies Research Center of the University of California, Los Angeles.

It has been about 15 years since the museum last exhibited Chicano art.

OUR TOP STORIES DAILY BE IN THE KNOW! DAILY NEWSLETTER SIGN UP DNAinfo.com

- Popular | Recent
Elderly Man Found Dead on Inwood Sidewalk, Bleeding From the Back of His Head
Lessons from A Week Without Newspapers
Amanda Lepore, Manhattan Club Icon, Has a New Scene — Jury Duty
Carla Bruni Upstages Husband Nicolas Sarkozy at Columbia University
Man Killed by Subway Train at Columbia University Stop

DNAinfo WEEKLY QUIZ CLICK TO TAKE THE QUIZ

FOLLOW US Twitter Facebook

VIDEO UPDATE DNAinfo manhattan local CLICK TO WATCH VIDEO

- TWITTER@DNAINFO
Stocks for Steaks! Smith & Wollensky Trades Steak for Citi Stock - http://bit.ly/agpvQO #stock Updated 4 mins ago reply
Man Leaps To His Death From Empire State Building Observation Deck - http://bit.ly/aoPHBb Updated 2 hrs ago reply
RT @jonschuppe: Man found dead in Inwood was elevator operator at 190th St subway station http://bit.ly/bWb43n #harlem #WaHI reply