UCLA Chicano Studies Research Center Event Announcement

You are cordially invited to the book talk

“Reframing the Latino Immigration Debate: Towards a Humanistic Paradigm”

By Alvaro Huerta, Ph.D.

Wednesday, October 9, 2013

3:00 – 5:00 p.m.

CSRC Library – 144 Haines Hall

FREE

In his new book of short, non-fiction essays, Alvaro Huerta, CSRC visiting scholar, asks readers to reassess critical political and cultural issues unfolding along the U.S./Mexico border. Paired in this volume with the photography of Antonio Turok, Huerta's words move readers “towards a humanistic paradigm” in a work that has been called as a “must read” for students, scholars, and policy-makers alike. Huerta’s presentation will be followed by a conversation with Juan Gómez-Quíñones, UCLA professor of history and former CSRC director, who provided the book’s foreword.

Books will be available for purchase at this event.
