

The Inter-University Program for Latino Research at the University of Illinois at Chicago and the Smithsonian Latino Center invite you to attend

LATINO ART NOW!

Re-Imaging Global Intersections

FIFTH BIENNIAL CONFERENCE

<http://iuplr.uic.edu/iuplr/latino-art-now>

You are cordially Invited to Opening Session & Reception

Thursday, April 7th, 2016

Chicago Cultural Center

78 E Washington St.

Chicago, IL 60602

1:00-3:00pm

Exhibition Walkthroughs

3:00-5:00pm

Opening Session

Preston Bradley Hall

(Open to the public.)

Welcoming Remarks & Artists Panel

Antonio Martorell, Visual Artist, San Juan

Iñigo Manglano-Ovalle, Visual Artist, Chicago

Tania Bruguera, Installation and Performance Artist, New York/Havana

Scherezade Garcia, Visual Artist, New York

Maria Gaspar, Visual Artist, Chicago

Presentation of the Tomás Ybarra-Frausto Award to

Carlos Tortolero, President, National Museum of Mexican Art

5:30-7:30pm

Kick-off Reception

Macy's Narcissus Room, 7th floor

111 N. State St.

Chicago, IL 60602

(RSVP Required. Please RSVP to:
IUPLR-Chicago@uic.edu)

Music and Poetry Reading

Latino Art Now! and its ancillary activities are made possible with the additional support from: Allstate • BMO Harris Bank • DePaul University's Center for Latino Research & Art Museum • Hispanics in Philanthropy • National Endowment for the Arts • Ms. Juana Guzman • Dr. Walter • Mrs. Janet Miller Fund • This LAN Conference received Federal support from the Latino Initiatives Pool, administered by the Smithsonian Latino Center

