You are cordially invited to a discussion with

MARICÓN COLLECTIVE

Thursday, May 21, 2015

3:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m.

CSRC Library, 144 Haines Hall

FREE; no RSVP required

Maricón Collective was formed in the spring of 2014 as a queer Chicano/Latino DJ and artist collective “with the hope to bring Queer POC people together through dance and celebration” (mission statement). Re-appropriating the once negative connotation of the term Maricón, they have participated in creating visibility for a new generation of queer Chican@/Latin@s in the Los Angeles area. In addition to developing a cult following via social media and hosting various fundraising community events, they have also collaborated with Chicana/o artists such as Alice Bag, Joey Terrill, and Shizu Saldamando.

Join us in conversation with the artists and engage with the works being donated to the Chicana/o Studies Research Library archives, consisting of ephemera and prints from the artists’ first year together as a collective. This event is curated by Juan Fernandez, an undergraduate senior majoring in Chicana/o studies with a minor in LGBT studies.

Co-sponsored by the UCLA César Chavez Department of Chicana/o Studies, La Familia de UCLA and Qscholars of UCLA, the Los Angeles Cultural Affairs Commission, and the CSRC.
