

The International Institute, the UCLA Program on International Migration the Cesar E. Chavez Department of Chicana and Chicano Studies, the Chicano Studies Research Center, and the Center for Oral History are pleased to present:

Author-Meets-Critics Session on Leisy J. Abrego's book Sacrificing Families : Navigating Laws, Labor and Love across Borders

Author: Leisy J. Abrego, Chicana/o Studies, UCLA
Critics: Pierrette Hondagneu-Sotelo, Sociology, USC
Carola Suárez-Orozco, GSEIS, UCLA

Chicano Studies Research Center Library
144 Haines Hall

Friday, May 16, 12-1:30

Like us on Facebook and follow us on Twitter

Other talks this quarter:

All events take place in 279 Haines at noon.

- May 23 "Mini-symposium on migration in China." Yu ZHU, Fujian Normal University, and Chuanbo CHEN, Renmin University
- May 30 "Territorial and Cultural Inclusion: Comparing Citizenship Policies in Europe" By Rainer Baubock, European University Institute

Thanks to support from: the International Institute; the UCLA School of Law; UCLA Graduate School of Education and Information Science; the Burkle Center for International Relations; the Center for European and Eurasian Studies; the Institute of American Cultures; the Department of Chicana/o Studies; the Department of Geography; and the Irene Flecknoe Ross Lecture Series in the Department of Sociology. The Irene Flecknoe Ross Lecture Series is made possible by a gift from Ray Ross in memory of his wife.

UCLA Program on International Migration: <http://www.international.ucla.edu/migration/index.asp>