UCLA Chicano Studies Research Center Event Announcement

You are cordially invited to Artist's Talk: Star Montana Tear Drops & Three Dots

Saint Louise Ascends, 2011, inkjet print

Wednesday, October 19, 2016
3:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.
CSRC Library - 144 Haines Hall

Join us for an artist's talk by Star Montana, whose exhibition Selections from Tear Drops & Three Dots, curated by Emily Butts, is currently on view at the CSRC library through October 28. Comprised of photographic portraits and a video installation, the exhibition captures an acute sense of time and timelessness, deep heartbreak and loss. Although vulnerable and intimate, her portraits find strength in the commonality of difficult—and often unspoken—narratives. The complete show, Tear Drops & Three Dots, was on display at the Vincent Price Art Museum from February 27 - May 21, 2016.

STAR MONTANA is a photo-based artist who lives and works in Los Angeles, CA, and Brooklyn, NY. She was born and raised in the Boyle Heights neighborhood of East Los Angeles, which is predominantly Mexican American and serves as the backdrop to much of her work. Montana received her BFA from the School of Visual Arts in 2013. In 2012, she worked at the CSRC as part of the Getty Multicultural Internship Program.

All CSRC events are free and do not require an RSVP unless otherwise noted. Programs are subject to change. For the most current information, visit the Events page on the CSRC website. All-day parking ($12) and short-term parking (payable at pay stations) are available in Lots 2, 3 or 4 (enter the campus at Hilgard and Westholme avenues). First 5 people to RSVP to clentz@chicano.ucla.edu will receive free parking.
