

The bozalta Collective presents...

Uncasting Colonialization from our Bodies & Dreams

April 18, 2019—10AM-4:00 PM

KEYNOTE: “Writing from the Body,”

a creative writing workshop with Alán Peláez López

Rolfe Hall 2123, 10AM-12PM

Alán Peláez López is an Afro-Indigenous poet & artist from Oaxaca, Mexico. In their art, they explore the intersections of PTSD, undocumented immigration, Indigeneity, queer feelings, Black flesh, & visions for liberation. Their work has been nominated for the “Pushcart Prize” & “Best of the Net.” They create, mourn, laugh, & ache in Chochoy Ohlone Land.

LUNCH AND Q&A:

Rolfe Courtyard, 12:15PM-1:45PM

FOLLOWED BY: A movement & plant medicine workshop with Joy Angela Anderson

Rolfe Courtyard, 2PM-4PM

RSVP NOW:

Send a 30-word bio to bozalta.contact@gmail.com

