This year's open house will launch the CSRC's fiftieth anniversary celebration and serve as the official opening of an exhibition featuring archival materials representing fifty years of Chicax activism. Included in the exhibition, on view in the CSRC Library, will be new artworks by Bruins Salomón Huerta and Angélica Becerra. There will be special guests, CSRC publications on sale, a chance to explore the La Raza Interactive Touchscreen, and more. Plus, meet CSRC staff and enjoy catering by Casablanca on the patio.

Parking: Self-service parking is available in lots 2 and 3 ($3 per hour or $12 all day).
