

presents

LATINO AMERICANS

---

500 YEARS OF HISTORY

A public programming initiative from the National Endowment for the Humanities and the American Library Association.

Screening – Episode 2: "Empire of Dreams"

Monday, February 22

4:00-6:00 p.m.

CSRC Library - 144 Haines Hall

"Empire of Dreams" examines widespread immigration to the United States from Latin American countries and deportations between 1880 and 1942. After the screening, Marissa K. López, associate professor of English and Chicana/o studies, will lead a discussion on topics raised in the episode. A reception will follow the discussion.

Screening – Episode 4: "The New Latinos"

Thursday, February 25

12:00-1:45 p.m.

CSRC Library - 144 Haines Hall

"The New Latinos" explores the three waves of large-scale immigration between 1946 and 1965. Following the screening, Kristy Guevara-Flanagan, assistant professor of film at UCLA, will lead a discussion. The discussion will include a Skype interview with Nina Alvarez, the writer and director of this episode.

---

The Fowler Museum will be screening Episode 5 of the series on March 3. See website for more info.

---

All-day parking ($12) and short-term parking (payable at pay stations) are available in Lots 2, 3 or 4. These events are free and open to the public. No RSVP required.

www.chicano.ucla.edu

Latino Americans: 500 Years of History, created by the National Endowment for the Humanities and the American Library Association, is part of an NEH initiative, The Common Good: The Humanities in the Public Square.