UCLA Chicano Studies Research Center Event Announcement

You are cordially invited to the
CSRC Annual Open House

Featuring the opening of the library exhibition
Sal Castro: Legacy of a "Teacher"

Tuesday, October 15, 2013

4:00 – 7:00 p.m.

CSRC Library – 144 Haines Hall

This year's open house will serve as the official opening of Sal Castro: Legacy of a "Teacher," an exhibition of items from the Sal Castro Collection recently donated to the CSRC. Castro, who passed away in April, was devoted to educational equity and opportunity for all students. His legacy lives on through the thousands of lives he influenced over four decades as a teacher and counselor in the Eastside schools of Los Angeles and through the Chicano Youth Leadership Conference. Two of Castro's former students will speak: Myrna Brutti, a principal at Wilmington Middle School, and Robin Avelar La Salle, Ph.D., chief executive officer of the Principal's Exchange Foundation, a non-profit educational organization. In addition, CSRC books will be for sale at a discount and Casablanca Catering will serve food on the patio. Join us!

Co-sponsored by AltaMed Health Services Corp.
