Join campus leaders, faculty, staff, students, and national higher education experts for a transformative half-day event fostering innovation and optimism. The forum will reflect on UCLA's journey as an emerging Hispanic-Serving Institution (HSI), highlighting its unique contributions to educational access and research. Celebrate progress and envision an even brighter future for inclusive excellence in higher education.

EVENT OBJECTIVES:

Cultivate collaboration to foster an environment that promotes innovation, cultural humility, and inclusive excellence.

Explore the significance of UCLA's HSI initiative in the broader state and national context, emphasizing opportunities and challenges in nurturing future Latino leaders.

Acquire practical and concrete strategies for implementing culturally responsive pedagogy, curriculum, and mentorship in higher education, especially within STEM.
