

THE CHICANO STUDIES RESEARCH
CENTER PRESENTS THE INAUGURAL
DR. ALBERT M. CAMARILLO LECTURE

“The Rise of the Necro/Narco Flexible Superstate Network: From Tucson to Tapachula and Their Cultural and Behavioral Consequences”

By Carlos G. Vélez-Ibáñez
Regents’ Professor, School of Transborder
Studies and School of Human Evolution and Social Change

Arizona State University

FEB | MON | 2023
13

UCLA FACULTY CLUB,
SEQUOIA ROOM

3:15 p.m. Reception

4 p.m. Lecture, followed by Q&A

REGISTRATION:

[HTTPS://WWW.EVENTBRITE.COM/E/CARL
OS-G-VELEZ-IBANEZ-THE-RISE-OF-THE-
NECRONARCO-FLEXIBLE-SUPERSTATE-
TICKETS-521259450047](https://www.eventbrite.com/e/carl-os-g-velez-ibanez-the-rise-of-the-NECRONARCO-FLEXIBLE-SUPERSTATE-TICKETS-521259450047)

UCLA Institute of American Cultures
Chicano Studies Research Center

Vélez-Ibáñez is the author of *Reflections of a Transborder
Anthropologist: From Netzahualcóyotl to Aztlán (Tucson: University of Arizona, 2020)*

Self-pay parking is available in UCLA Lot 2, 602 Charles E.
Young Drive East

