

EMPOWERING LATINO FUTURES'S INTERNATIONAL LATINO BOOK AWARDS

The Largest Awards in the USA Celebrating Achievements in Latino Literature

The International Latino Book Awards Reflects That 2021 Is A Major Turning Point for Books By & About Latinos
By Kirk Whisler

The International Latino Book Awards is a major reflection that the fastest growing group in the USA has truly arrived. The Awards are now by far the largest Latino cultural Awards in the USA and with the 276 winners this year in 105 categories, it has now honored the greatness of 3,470 authors and publishers over the past two decades. The size of the Awards is proof that books by and about Latinos are in high demand. In 2020, Latinos purchased over $750 million in books in English and Spanish. The four ceremonies of the 23rd International Latino Book Awards Ceremony, held October 16th and 17th and everything you need to know about ELF's author programs are at www.LatinoBookAwards.org.

The Awards are designed to cover all types of books: Childrens, NonFiction, Fiction, Poetry, Translation, and more. Presenters for the Awards included Legends who have helped the Latino community develop and whom we have awards named after: Alma Flor Ada, Isabel Allende, Charlie Eriksen, Juan Felipe Herrera, Dolores Huerta, Mimi Lozano, Ambassador Julian Nava, and Victor Villaseñor. Award Winning Authors: Isabel Campoy and Daisey Martinez. Educational leaders LACC's Mary Gallagher and ELAC's Felipe Agredano. Entertainment industry professionals Mike Gomez, Bel Hernandez, Josefina Lopez, Edward James Olmos, and Jerry Velasco. Heads of national organizations included Independent Book Publisher's Association's Angela Bole; Las Comadres' Nora de Hoyos Comstock; AltaMed's Castulo de la Rocha; REFORMA's Nicolas Díaz; La Plaza de Cultura y Artes' CEO John Echeveste; the Hispanic Association of Colleges & Universities' Dr Antonio Flores; National LULAC President Domingo Garcia; UnidosUS' Janet Murguia; Publisher's Weekly en Español's Enrique Parrilla; CANIEM's Alejandro Ramirez Flores; Latinxs in Kid Lit's Cindy Rodriguez; and Libro Hispano's Pilar Velez. There were also LIFETIME Achievement Awards for Arte Público Press' Nicolás Kanellos and Cinco Puntos Press' Byrd Family, as well as entertainment by Andres 123, Gina Chavez, Echo Park Project, and Mariachi Reyna de Los Angeles.

The 2021 Winners of the 23rd Annual International Latino Book Awards are another reflection of the growing quality of books by and about Latinos. About 42% of the winners were from major U.S. and Int'l publishers, up from 19% five years ago. In order to handle this large number of books, the Awards had 198 judges in 2021. The judges shared how hard it was because there are now so many great books being published. Judges included librarians, educators, media professionals, leaders of national organizations, Pulitzer Prize Winners, and even elected officials. The Awards celebrates books in English, Spanish and Portuguese. Finalists are from across the USA, Puerto Rico, and 19 other countries.

The Awards are produced by Empowering Latino Futures, a nonprofit organization co-founded in 1997 by Edward James Olmos and Kirk Whisler. Other ELF programs include the Latino Book & Family Festival, currently being held virtually at www.LBFF.us, our 69th Festival. The International Society of Latino Authors now has 213 members. Education Begins in the Home has supplied books to 155,000+ underserved readers. The Latino & American Indian Scholarship Directory has been used by 182,000 students. More than 40 episodes of the Latino Reads Podcast have now aired. ELF's programs have now touched over a million people. 350 volunteers annually donate 14,000+ hours of service.

2021 ELF Partners include GrupoMex, Amazon Literacy Partnership, Los Angeles City College, Scholastic, Energy Upgrade California, AARP California, MAAC, Route 78 Rotary, Macmillan Publishers, Edward Becerra, Lantia Publishing, MiraCosta College, MyPoint Credit Union, and National LULAC. Los reconocimientos internacionales de libros latinos reflejan que el 2021 ha sido un gran año para libros escritos por y sobre latinos

Por Kirk Whisler

Los Reconocimientos Internacionales de Libros Latinos (ILBA por sus siglas en inglés) reflejan notablemente que ha llegado el grupo de más rápido crecimiento en Estados Unidos, los Latinos. Estos reconocimientos culturales a los Latinos se han convertido en los más grandes en Estados Unidos y con los 276 ganadores de este año en 105 categorías, hemos reconocido la grandeza de 3,470 autores y editoriales en las últimas 2 décadas. El crecimiento de los libros escritos por y sobre Latinos representan la demanda creciente de la literatura Latina. En el 2020, los Latinos gastaron más de $750 millones en libros en inglés y español. Las cuatro ceremonias de los vigésimo tercer reconocimientos internacionales de libros Latinos que se llevo a cabo el 16 y 17 de octubre y todo lo que hay que saber sobre los programas de autores de ELF, están accesibles en www.LatinoBookAwards.org

Los reconocimientos están diseñados para cubrir gran variedad de categorías incluyendo libros para niños, no-ficción, ficción, poesía, traducción, y más. Algunos de los presentadores incluyen 'leyendas' que han contribuido al desarrollo de las comunidades latinas y por lo cual algunas categorías llevan su nombre: Alma Flor Ada, Isabel Allende, Charlie Ericksen, Juan Felipe Herrera, Dolores Huerta, Mimi Lozano, Ambassador Julian Nava, y Victor Villaseñor. Autores galardonados: Isabel Campoy y Daisy Martinez. Líderes de la educación: Mary Gallagher de LACC y Felipe Agredano de ELAC. Profesionales de la industria del entretenimiento: Mike Gomez, Bel Hernandez, Josefina Lopez, Edward James Olmos, y Jerry Velasco. Líderes de organizaciones nacionales: Angela Bole de la Asociación Independiente de Editores de libros; Nora de Hoyos Comstock de Las Comadres; Castulo de la Rocha de AltaMed; Nicolas Díaz de REFORMA; John Echeveste de La Plaza de Cultura y Artes; Dr Antonio Flores de La Hispanic Association of Colleges & Universities; Domingo Garcia, el Presidente de National LULAC; Janet Murguia de UnidosUS; Enrique Parrilla de Publisher's Weekly en Español; Alejandro Ramirez Flores de CANIEM; Cindy Rodriguez de Latinxs in Kid Lit; y Pilar Velez de Libro Hispano. También hubo reconocimientos por grandes logros (LIFETIME Achievement Awards) para Nicolás Kanellos de Arte Público Press y para la familia Byrd de Cinco Puntos Press; así como entretenimiento por Andrés 123, Gina Chavez, Proyecto Echo Park, y Mariachi Reyna de Los Angeles.

Los ganadores de los Reconocimientos Internacionales de Libros Latinos 2021 reflejan la creciente calidad de los libros escritos por y para Latinos. Cerca del 42% de los ganadores pertenecen a las editoriales más grandes en Estados Unidos y editoriales internacionales, estos representan un crecimiento del 19% de los últimos cinco años. Para lograr este gran número de libros, los reconocimientos tuvieron la participación de 198 jueces este 2021. Los jueces compartieron lo difícil que fue elegir ganadores por la cantidad de libros sobresalientes. Los jueces incluyeron bibliotecarios, educadores, profesionales de medios de comunicación, líderes nacionales, ganadores de Pulitzer Prize, y oficiales electos. Cada año se reconocen libros escritos en inglés, español y portugués. Los finalistas son de alrededor de Estados Unidos, Puerto Rico, y de otros 19 países.
