

Home / Events / A Look Back: Mapping Another LA: The Chicano Art Movement / A Look Back: Mapping Another LA: The Chicano Art Movement / Events / A Look Back: Mapping Another LA: The Chicano Art Movement

This event has passed.

A Look Back: Mapping Another LA: The Chicano Art Movement

Family Friendly Free Historic Preservation Latino Heritage Month

This archived exhibition explores the 1970's Chicano art movement in East Los Angeles. With the establishment of the first Chicano art gallery in East Los Angeles, Chicano artists initiated a collective reimagining the urban landscape through such media as photography, graphic arts, murals, painting, and sculpture. These artists mapped another L.A., harnessing their work as part of a social protest and community empowerment movement.

Location

Virtual

Organizer

Fowler Museum, UCLA

DATE

Oct 24, 2020 @ 08:00 AM

TIME

Oct 24, 2020 @ 08:00 AM - Oct 24, 2020 @ 05:00 PM

COST

Free

ORGANIZER'S SITE

fowler.ucla.edu/at-home/a-look-back-mapping-another-la-the-chicano-art-movement/

COUNCIL DISTRICT

City Council District 5

Upcoming Events

October 27
|Recurring Event (See all)|
Virtual,

Virtual Día de los Muertos Exhibition

Free

Día de los Muertos Exhibition altar by Annette Zaragoza-Bilow. A tribute to her brother, Carlos Zaragoza.

Since 1973, Self Help Graphics & Art has produced one of the most renown Día de los Muertos cultural events in Los Angeles — noted as one of the oldest Day of the Dead public commemorations in the nation.

October 27
|Recurring Event (See all)|
Virtual,

A Mexican Trilogy: Charity – Archival Video Presentation of Latino Theater Company

Free

The Latino Theater Company presents an archival video showing of Part 3, Charity, of Evelina Fernández’s acclaimed trilogy. The final chapter in the story of the Morales family takes place in 2005 Los Angeles following the death of Pope John Paul II. Filled with music, humor, and a pinch of magical realism, A Mexican Trilogy is the winner of the Los Angeles Drama Critics Circle’s Ted Schmitt Award and is published by Samuel French. A follow-up, online conversation with...

October 27
|Recurring Event (See all)

Virtual,

Dementia –Archival Video Presentation of Latino Theater Company

Free

An archival video showing of Evelina Fernández’s innovative play tackling topics taboo in the Latino community, including homosexuality, AIDS, teen pregnancy, and euthanasia — all through the Latino Theater Company’s uniquely styled lens. First produced in 2002, Dementia garnered a GLAAD Award for Outstanding Theater Production and four Ovation nominations and was revived by the LTC in 2010 and again in 2017. A follow-up, online conversation with the artists will take place on October 28.

October 27
|Recurring Event (See all)

Virtual,

Searching for Your Indigenous Roots in Mexico

Free

Lecturer John Schmal will give a presentation on searching for your indigenous roots in Mexico. In addition to showing examples of Indian baptisms and marriages from various parts of the country, he will discuss the issue of tribal identity and the use of the generic term “indio” in Catholic Church records as early as the 1600s. Some of the challenges of tracing indigenous families beyond several generations will be discussed. John P. Schmal is a historian, genealogist, and lecturer. John...

October 27
|Recurring Event (See all)

Virtual,

The Best of Los Angeles – Gaby Moreno

Free

Since moving to Los Angeles from Guatemala, Gaby Moreno has earned a Latin Grammy for Best New Artist, a Grammy nomination for her album Illusion, and an Emmy nomination for co-writing the Parks & Recreation theme song. Moreno also sings the theme song and voices a character on the Disney series, Elena of Avalor.